NOTICE TO THE MARKET

COSAN S.A. INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO (BM&FBovespa: CSAN3) (“Cosan”) hereby announces to its shareholders and the general market that it has signed an agreement with Sumitomo Corporation for the investment of up to R$70 million in Cosan Biomassa S.A. (“Cosan Biomassa”). After all contractual conditions are met, Sumitomo will hold up to 20% of the capital of Cosan Biomassa.

The conclusion of the Operation, and execution of the final contracts, is subject to fulfillment of certain conditions precedent, as well as approval by Brazil's Antitrust Authority (CADE).

Created in 2010, Cosan Biomassa has developed technology and equipment to produce sugarcane-biomass pellets. Production uses exclusively sugarcane waste to produce pellets that can replace coal, natural gas and fuel oil to generate power and heat. Cosan Biomassa obtained financing from FINEP, an agency connected to the Ministry of Science and Technology, to build its plant in Jaú, São Paulo, which started operating in 2015.
